Ever since the Hyderabad General Sales Tax Act, 1950 came into force (1-5-1950), the question whether Article 286 (1) and (2) of the Constitution of India empowers the importing State where the goods have actually been delivered for the purpose of consumption in the State to impose tax on the inter-State transactions has been in doubt. This has been cleared by the Supreme Court of India in its judgment delivered in the case of the State of Bombay versus the United Motors (India) Ltd.

(But such dealers who have actually collected tax between the 1st May, 1950 and the 31st March, 1953 on inter-State transactions will, however, be required to pay over the amounts so collected, to the Government).

All non-resident dealer who are liable to pay tax shall submit once in every quarter, returns in respect of inter-State transactions pertaining to the State of Hyderabad by post in the form prescribed by the Hyderabad Government. The returns should be submitted

The Sales Tax Officer, Central Circle, if he feels it necessary, will examine the accounts of the non-resident dealer at the Headquarters of the Sales Tax Officer concerned in the State of the dealer's residence.

Appeals arising out of such assessments may, at the request of the dealer, be heard at one or two central places in the State of the dealer's residence. All proceedings involving the jurisdiction of the Revisional Authority would, however, be dealt with at the normal Headquarters of the Revisional Authority in this State (Hyderabad City).

The tax due from the non-resident dealers shall be paid by either crossed cheques or postal orders or demand drafts in favour of the Sales Tax Officer, Central Circle, Sales Tax Department, Hyderabad-Dn. It is not necessary that the payments should be made at the Treasuries in this State.

All non-resident dealers may address their communications to the following address :

"The Sales Tax Officer,
Central Circle,

Office of the Commissioner of Sales Tax,
Hyderabad Deccan".

Copies of the Hyderabad General Sales Tax Act and rules the reunder are priced publications and will be available from the Commissioner of Sales Tax, Hyderabad-Deccan.
